Showtime Basketball's College Prospect Database

As a by-product of our work with college programs in the USA, we are consistently asked by college coaches if we know of any Australian players who are looking to play college basketball in the USA. To assist our growing network of college contacts in the USA we operate an Australian player database allowing college coaches to connect with Australian players through our database.

Our database has been a useful tool to hundreds of Australian players in the past. There are no costs associated with using our database – our income is derived from arranging travel for tour groups. Conducting our database assist our business to grow by – i) enabling Showtime to assist our clients in the USA recruiting top Australian players; and ii) assisting players playing college basketball in the US, more college programs are likely to travel to Australia.

By signing up to our database, we will forward your details onto college coaches in the USA periodically throughout the year. We will also add you to our mailing list where you will receive useful information on eligibility requirements, how to selecting the right college for you, SAT test dates and more.
